141 LIVES LOST ON SINKING STEAMER

Steamship Berlin Goes Down In Terrific Gale.

WAS IN SIGHT OF THE DOCK

rman Opera Company, King's Mes-nger and Many Others Meet Their Death Trying to Man the Life Boats of Sinking Steamer.

London, Feb. 22.—The Ritterdam ll steamer Berlin, from England, h 141 passengers and crew, was cked off the hook of Holland at entrance of the river Maas, lead- to Rotterdam, shortly before 6 lock Thursday morning, and with exception, all on board perished. terrific southwesterly gale was wing right inshore and drove the mer on a sand bank close to the thern jetty, as she was trying to r the new waterway. Heavy quickly pounded the vessel to ces. She broke in two, her fore sinking immediately, while the med passengers and crew could be n for a brief space of time clus- on the after part. Then the r part slipped off the ledge and appeared in the mountainous s.

ugs and life boats, when the m was first sounded, promptly put to the assistance of the Berlin, the violence of the gale and the vy seas made it impossible to roach the wreck and the help- would-be life-savers saw the mer break up and the crew and engers washed away without be- able to render the slightest as- nce.

y 7 o'clock in the morning 25 ies had already been washed ore.

The Berlin left Harwich at 10 p. m. dnesday night, upon the arrival e of the London train with the ater number of passengers who sequently lost their lives. The mer should have reached the hook Holland at 6 o'clock a. m. Thurs- and would have then proceeded Rotterdam.

great gale was blowing in the rth sea when the Berlin started. s the Berlin was entering the wa- way at the entrance of the river as, however, she apparently be- e unmanageable on account of the e of the wind, and was driven ore. The alarm was given and life boats from the shore went the assistance of the stricken ves- but the seas were so heavy that boats were unable to approach Berlin close enough to take off y of the passengers or crew and lifeboats' men had to sit help- s while the steamer pounded until e broke in two and every soul on oard was carried down.

The steamer apparently struck bout amidships, as her fore part roke off and sank immediately, while er after part could be seen for a onsiderable period of time afterward.

The waterway in which the disas- r occurred is a new one on the rth side of which is the pier and ailroad station. The steamer must ave been within a few minutes' of ing up after her rough passage ross the North sea when she was ertaken by the disaster. The land s but a few yards away, and except the roughest weather, those on ard the Berlin could have been ued without difficulty, and espe- y as the waterway is navigable times.

Berlin was a steel steamer, years old, and popular with lers to the north of Europe. she usually was crowded ers, but at this season were about equally first and second-at the Liverpool station said Wednesday night that he thought there was more first-class passengers than second-class passengers, most of them being commercial men or persons having professinal business engagements on the continent or else inhabitants of the ocntinent, returning home from business trips to Great Britain. Much difficulty is being experienced in obtaining the names of the passengers as the tickets were purchased from many agents in London an other cities, while some of the travelers may have had return tickets.

The only names the company can be sure of are those of passengers who secured reserved berths. The company's agents are being asked to send in immediately to headquarters the names of all such persons.

The members of the crew, numbering fifty, were mostly Englishment, who were mostly from Harwich. The officers were Captain Precious, First Officer C. Morseley, Second Officer J. Wyatt, Chief Engineer Bennant, four assistant engineers and four stewardesses.

Calls for Liberty or Death.

Havana, Feb. 22.—General Leonard de Castillo is out with another statement calling for liberty or death. In a statement published in La Lucha, he says: "Independence or death is only an issue. Let cowards live without country. To my last breath I'll fight for Cuba libre. Hundreds of thousands of Spanish soldiers have been buried for opposing Cuba's independence. Millions more of toms will be opened if necessary. We accepted the surrender of arms, believing the American's would give back our liberty." General Castillo has asked for an audience with Governor Magoon, who has granted it for Friday. The general says he will then demand the exact date of the elections and the withdrawal of the Americans.

Will Use 900,000 Pounds of Dynamite.

Washington, Feb. 22.—Some idea of the immensity of the task which confronts the government in the matter of taking out dirt, rock and other material in the construction of the Panama canal, may be gathered from the fact that during the next 12 months there will be consumed 900,000 pounds of dynamite. The contract for this vast amount of explosive will be let shortly, and when it is put aboard a vessel and sent to Colon, it will form the largest shipment of that kind which ever left an American port. In addition there will go along with it 40,000 electric exploders, 4,000 tons of 70-foot rails, 2,600 steel splice bars, 23,500 tieplates, 90,000 pounds of track bolts, 300,000 pounds of track spikes and 150,000 cross ties.

Japanese School Question.

Tokio, Feb. 22.—A written interpellation regarding the San Francisco school question was presented to the government Thursday by a member of the house of representatives. The reply of foreign Minister Hayashi is expected in a few days. The Japanese office in San Francisco has cabled a strong appeal to Tokio asking the government to support their cause and pointing out that the restriction of Japanese emigration would eventually result in the extinction of their compatriots residing in San Francisco. The Japanese newspapers have not commented on this appeal up to the present.

Theatrical Man Found Dead.

New York, Feb. 22.—Frank MacVicars, who had been playing in the "Man of the Hour," at the Savoy theater, was found dead Thursday at the foot of a short flight of steps leading from the sidewalk to an areaway of the Hotel Rivoli, in West Thirty-eighth street, where he lived. His skull was fractured. It is believed that his death was accidental. Mr. MacVicars came to New York from California.

Favorable Report Made.

Washington, Feb. 22.—A favorable report has been made by the house committee of the District of Columbia on the bill introduced by Representative Byrd forbidding the marriage of a Caucasian with a negro, or with a Mongolian in the District

INTO HONDURAS NICARAUGA MARCHES

After Frontier Battle Forces Cross Into Honduras.

HONDURAN GENERAL IS KILLED

It Is Alleged that the Nicaraguan Army Has Captured Important Positions and Is Sweeping All Before It in Its March.

Managua, Nicaragua, Feb. 22.—As a result of the hostilities which broke out February 18 between Honduras and Nicaragua, resulting in the repulse of the Honduran army, the Nicaraguan troops are now advancing into the interior of Honduras.

General Carcamo, who led the attacking force, was killed during the fighting.

Many Killed and Wounded.

San Salvador, Republic of Salvador Feb. 22.—Dispatches received here by Senor Davila, the representative of Honduras, say that the Nicaraguan army invaded Honduras territory at Portillo del Espino, and that after two hours' fighting, the invading forces were completely defeated, leaving 37 men killed and many wounded on the field.

Washington, Feb. 22.—The state department has received official confirmation of the press dispatches telling of fighting between the forces of Nicaragua and Honduras. According to the information received, the clash took place last Monday. No details are given.

Nicaragua Captures Positions.

Managua, Ulcaragua, Feb. 22—The Nicaraguan army under General Vasuez and Fornes has defeated the forces of Honduras at several points, capturing important positions.

President Bonilla, of Honduras, has issued a proclamation in which recent events are distorted and appealing for adjustment of the boundary questions which Niciragua has not taken into late consideration since the king of Spain rendered his award in the matter. From the outset Nicagua has only demanded ample satisfaction for the violation of her territory, for the attack made on property, and the burning of buildings in Nicaraguan territory by regular troops of Honduras and for the killing of Nicaraguan soldiers, who composed the small frontier guard which was attacked by Honduran troops.

Sensational Murder Trial.

Culpepper, Va., Feb. 22.—Philip and James Strothers, brothers, were placed on trial Thursday charged with the murder of their brother-in-law, William F. Raywaters, on the night of December 15th, last, within a few hours after he had been married to their sister, Miss Viola Strothers. The "unwritten law" will be the defense, and the trial promises to be the most sensational in Virginia since the trial and conviction of former Mayor McCue, of Charlottesville, for the murder of his wife. Governor Swanson has designated Judge Thos. W. Harrison, of Winchester, to preside. Mrs. Rywaters has been in a critical condition since the night her husband was killed, but it is thought she will be able to testify for the prosecution.

Publishers and the Unions.

New York, Feb. 22.—New agreements which are expected to avert all labor troubles between the parties affected and to guarantee an amicable settlement of any matters of dispute between them were made at Wednesday's meeting of the American Newspaper Publishers' association with the International Typographical Union, the International Stereotypers' union and the International Photographers Engravers' union. Although the substance of the new treaty was not made public, it was said by a member of the Publishers' association that there is now a clear understanding between the publishers and the unions.

LOCAL OPTION WAS DISCUSSED

Alabama Senators Favor This Plan for the Counties.

Montgomery, Ala., Feb. 22.—The senate devoted most of Wednesday to a discussion of local option, which will likely pass, but which had much opposition because of failure to let those counties with dispensaries rest as they are for awhile. The fight was to keep off elections in these for at least two years, and pending this adjournment was taken.

The house killed the immigration department, by a vote of 54 to 36, after several hours of debate. It is understood that the governor was opposed to the bill in its present shape.

The house passed the bills giving appropriations for the maintenance of the university, the Technological institute, the Girls' Industrial school, the Boy's Industrial school, the medical college and the deaf and blind institute.

Bills were also passed to provide for management of the Soldier's home at Mountain Creek, and raising the amount for each inmate from $125 a year to $150.

A bill was presented in the house to have the railroad commission fix the rates on the Alabama railroads so that the companies can make 6 per cent on their investment, and to provide a means of ascertaining values of the lines.

The senate agreed to adjourn for the recess on March 2 and return June 18.

Forty-one bills went to the desk of the governor for signature, among them being the important railroad bills recently passed.

NEGRO DEMANDED MONEY.

But Dalton, Ga., Woman Frightened Him Away with Pistol.

Dalton, Ga., Feb. 22.—While the men of Crow Valley were attending Calloway's auction sale a negro leaped in the door of the house occupied by Mrs. Coleman, a widow living near Haig's Mill, just 4 miles north of Dalton, and demanded money. On being refused, the negro sprang upon Mrs. Coleman and badly choked her.

Relaxing his hold he again demanded the money, and she went to a trunk as if to get it. She found a pistol in the trunk and snapped it at the negro three times.

He ran, and as he went around the house, Mrs. Coleman again snapped the pistol, and this time it went off, but the brute was around the corner and escaped the bullet.

A searching party from Dalton gave chase to the negro, but returned empty handed.

The negro was low and chunky, weighing about 160 pounds. He had a scrabby beard and wore a black slouch hat and it is believed that he headed northward.

No Lives Were Lost.

New Orleans, Feb. 22.—That no lives were lost in the sinking of the steamer Hugoma Wednesday night when it was rammed in front of the city by the French cruiser Kleber, appears almost certain. The steamer went down so quickly that those on board had no time to search the lower decks to see that all had escaped. Officers of the vessel say, however, that the crew which was composed mostly of foreigners, has been fully accounted for.

Strike Has Been Settled.

Augusta, Ga., Feb. 22.—The strike of the car workers of the Georgia and Charleston and Western Carolina railroads has been settled, the companies conceding practically all the strikers' demands, except recognition of the union. More than six hundred men have returned to work. The men demanded an increase of 3 cents an hour as well as minor advantages not heretofore enjoyed.

They Will Go to Boston.

Mobile, Alad, Feb. 22.—It has been announced that all the witnesses in the Honduras Lottery company trial will take place in that city on Feb. 25, and United States District Attorney William Hambecht, of Mobile, will go to Boston to look after the government's side of the case. The trial to be held in Boston will only be a preliminary trial.

SENATOR SMOOT KEEPS HIS SEAT

Forty Two Senators Voted for Smoot and

TWENTY-EIGHT AGAINST HIM

The Galleries Were Packed with the Largest Assemblage that Has Filled Them at This Session—Democrats Were Generally Against Smoot.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 22.—When the vote on Reed Smoot was taken in the senate Wednesday, resulting in permission for him to retain his seat as a senator from Utah, by a vote of 43 to 28, the galleries were packed with the largest assemblage that has filled them this session.

Great interest in the three ballots taken by the senate was manifested, as the crowd had waited for five hours listening to the argument and awaiting the result.

The overwhelming preponderance of visitors were women. Indeed their attendance whenever the case of Mr. Smoot was up for debate, has been most noticeable.

In the audience were representatives of a number of prominent women's organizations, which have been active in circulating and having presented petitions of remonstrance against Mr. Smoot. These women secured many thousands of signatures to their petitions, which were sent to the senate in elaborately bound volumes.

Senators Bacon and Clay of Georgia, Tillman and Latimer of South Carolina, and the democrats generally, voted for expulsion. The republican defenders of Smoot sought to correct the statements that he had practiced polygamy, and several addresses by Senators Beveridge, Knox and others, have been made in his support. Senator Bacon declared his reason for voting against Smoot was that, while probably not a polygamist himself, he was an apostle of the Mormon church, and as such, countenanced polygamy, and favored a union of church and state.

Throughout the entire speech-making, Senator Smoot listened attentively, but when the voting began, he retired to the republican cloak room, and there awaited the result.

MRS. THAW RECALLED TO STAND

Will Be No Session of Court on Friday, Feb. 22.

New York, Feb. 22.—The prospect that District Attorney Jerome would develop more surprises when he continued the cross-examination of Evelyn Nesbit Thaw Thursday, brought another big crowd to the court room.

When Justice Fitzgerald had taken his seat on the bench there was a conference among the attorneys and it was decided there would be no session Friday, Washington's birthday.

When Mrs. Thaw was called to the stand she glanced at her husband and smiled.

Then she turned to Justice Fitzgerald and made a little bow to him but the justice did not notice her.

Tears came into Mrs. Thaw's eyes as Jerome continued to question her intimately about her relations with White. One of the newspaper women left the room.

Thaw hid has face in his hands as Jerome bitterly attacked his wife. Once Jerome offered to suspend for a time. Mr. Delmas would not consent.

Cannon Opposed to Charleston.

Washington, Feb. 22.—It has been learned that Speaker Cannon would refuse to allow consideration at this session of the bill reported by the immigration committee of the house for the location of an immigrant station at Charleston, S. C. This measure was urged in view of the importance Charleston has assumed as an immigrant port. The speaker professes to believe this money could be better employed in the erection of immigrant hotels at the large immigration centers of the country.

FIELD EXERCISES AT UNIVERSITY

Large Number of People Were Present to Witness Them.

MANY PRIZES WERE GIVEN

Shands of Gainesville Came Out Easily the Winner, But Was Compelled to Take Honors Through Skill and Practice—Exercises Were Fine.

The first annual field exercises of the University of Florida were held at the University campus Friday afternoon, Washington's Birthday, and attracted a number of people. The program was one of deep interest and enthusiasm, as was demonstrated by the crowd which witnessed the exercises, all of which were highly enjoyed by the people of Gainesville.

The judges upon this occasion were Captain N. H. Cox, Rev. F. H. Craigill, Prof. Crow and Lieutenant Ball, all of the University except Mr. Craigill, and Starter Forsyth, physical director of the University.

The prizes, which were handsome ones, were donated by the merchants of Gainesville, and resulted in a spirited enthusiasm.

The result of the contests was as follows, giving first and second honors:

1. Putting the shot—Hancock first, Rader second.
2. Hundred-yard dash—J. S. Shands, Gainesville, first; Tompkins, second.
3. Rope climbing—Pound, Gainesville, first; Ludwig, second.
4. Barrel race—Gibbs first, Corbett second.
5. Standing broad jump—Kline first, Mickler second.
6. Hurdle race—Shands first, Kline second.
7. Three-legged race—Shands first, Ludwig second.
8. Pole vault—Earman first, Corbett second.
9. Cracker-eating contest—Kirk first, Stephens second.
10. Dash, 220 yards—Tompkins first, Shands second.
11. Throwing the hammer—Rader first, 63 feet, Hancock second.
12. Running high jump—Kline first, Shands second.
13. Potato race—Gibbs first, Bryan second.
14. Running broad jump—Tompkins first, Corbett second.
15. Tug of war between ten men from each company—Captain Gibbs of Company A, Captain Johnson of Company B. Won by Company B.

The relative standing of the winners was decided by the judges to be as follows: Shands (J. S.) of Gainesville, Tompkins, Gibbs, Kline, Corbett, Hancock, Rader, Earman, Pound, Mickler, Kirk, Bryan and Ludwig.

The prizes, which have been on exhibition in Smith's jewelry store, will be presented after chapel exercises on Monday morning. The prizes were given by the liberal merchants of Gainesville.

THE BIBLE CONFERENCE.

Friday Was a Good Day, All Meetings Being Well Attended.

Friday was a good day for attendance at the Bible Conference, and at all four services there were good congregations.

Dr. Brown opened the day's work with his usual Bible lesson, which was followed by an address by Prof. Miller, which was his final message to his hearers. His address was full of earnestness, and a majority of those present bade him good-bye and God's blessing as the meeting closed. Prof. Miller has made himself popular here, and at the next session of the Conference he will be gladly welcomed.

In the afternoon Mr. Crittenton, the millionaire evangelist, preached a fine sermon, and in the evening, when Rev George Stuart was to fill the engagement, the big tabernacle, as usual, was filled. Mr. Stuart in his usual impressive manner entertained those who heard him.

The services today will be a morning service at 10 o'clock by Prof. Brown and an evening service by Dr. Stuart. The other services will be eliminated on account of being Saturday.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Services Sunday to be Held at Other Places of Worship.

The First Presbyterian Church is in the hands of carpenters and plasterers, for inside repairs, and cannot be used next Sunday. The Sabbath morning service will be held at the Tabernacle, at which Prof. J. R. C. Brown will preach a sermon especially appropriate to young disciples.

The Sunday school will be held at 3 p. m. at the First Baptist Church, which has been kindly offered the Presbyterians for the occasion. It is hoped that the church will be ready for use for the Thursday evening service and those of the following Sunday.

A Prominent Visitor.

Hon. W. S. Ware of Jacksonville, deputy grand high priest of the R. A. M. of Florida, paid Gainesville Chapter No. 2 an official visit Thursday night, when there was a large attendance upon the meeting. The work was conferred upon three candidates, and the visiting officer expressed himself as being well pleased with the manner in which the degree was conferred.

Mr. Ware, who is a modern example of a citizen, expressed surprise at the rapid growth of Gainesville within the past few years, which he described as nothing short of marvelous.

Seventh Day Adventists.

Elder S. B. Stephenson of Brooker, a Seventh Day Adventist who is a power among his people, is in the city, and will conduct services for two days in the little chapel in North Gainesville, which has been constructed by the Adventists.

There will be services today and tomorrow at 10:30 a. m. and 7 p m., and a cordial invitation is extended to the public.

SHOWMAN WAS "CALLED."

Tried to Get Funny, But Found His Match in Senator McCreary.

A good story is related of an occurrence on the carnival grounds Thursday afternoon, in which Senator H. H. McCreary and a spieler for one of the side shows figured, and in which the former emerged with honor and credit.

As is well known, there is a certain element following a show, no matter how refined the main attraction might be, who "know it all," and who consider the integrity of the managers as small in the estimation of their own.

It has also been known for a long time by those who are most familiar with him, that the Senator-editor is partial to a certain make of hats, and being unable to obtain the narrow-rimmed style of this particular make which he is accustomed to wear, he decided to take one of the wide-rimmed style.

The Senator, like all others who relish a little amusement now and then, was "taking in" the carnival, wearing the hat in question which he had just purchased (and which, by the way of parenthesis, his friends declare is especially becoming to him.) One of these "spielers" spied him, and laboring under the impression that "something was bound to come his way," yelled through the megaphone, addressing himself personally to the Senator: "Right this way, Hiram; come in and enjoy yourself; we cater especially to farmers."

The Senator, as usual, was equal to the occasion. "I had rather be an honest farmer than a spieler for a fake show," was the prompt response. This brought forth a laugh on the showman, and the good-natured crowd cheered the Senator to the echo.

The spieler and his megaphone were quiet until the former was sure Senator McCreary had quit the immediate vicinity.

HAIR TELLS CHARACTER.

Color of Hair Said to Indicate a Person's Temperament.

Many people believe that blonde, or light hair denotes affection and dark hair constancy. A person without hair is not devoid of character; far from it. The disposition of the average baldheaded man is to show such solicitude for the welfare of others, that he neglects himself. A germ causes baldness. Prof. Sabouraud, of Paris, France, innoculated a rabbit with Dandruff germs, causing it to become totally bald in five weeks' time. To rid the scalp of these dangerous germs it is necessary to apply Newbro's Herpicide.

ELKS ENTERTAINED IN A FINE MANNER

Their Stomachs Full of Oysters and Hearts Full of Love.

DELIGHTFUL INFORMAL SUPPER

Shields Warren Opened His Heart to Lodge, and Royal Arch Chapter of Masons Participated—Col. Chubb Presided—Fine Talks Were Made.

Although it was far from a formal opening of the new home of Gainesville Lodge No. 990, B P O. E., the surroundings at the new home on Thursday evening were very suggestive of such an event, as the place was a scene of gaiety among the "stags" who had gathered there on the regular meeting night. This aggregation at the closing scene was intermingled with "a Mason or two," members of the Royal Arch Chapter, who were invited to be present at the close of their meeting.

This was the occasion of a feast in the nature of an oyster supper, which was given the Elks complimentary as a courtesy from Shields Warren, receiver of the United States land office, and who was made a member of the order "by regular process" about two weeks ago. Mr. Warren, who is an Apalachicolean and a good fellow, felt that he was indebted to the Elks, with the result that he ordered a quantity of the luscius bivalves from his own home, and had them served up as only an Apalachicolean knows how to do.

This feast was quite a surprise to many Elks in attendance, but they were all equal to the occasion, and enjoyed that which was set before them. The supper was served in the commodious room which will be used as a billiard hall, and more than fifty plates were set. The members of the Royal Arch Chapter, which was in session just across the street, were invited, and accepted without much hesitancy. In all the function was a most enjoyable one, and will be remembered as one of the best informal suppers ever set in Gainesville

Hon. Henry S Chubb, register of the United States land office and exalted ruler of the Elks, acted as toastmaster in his usual clever manner. Col. Chubb enjoys a national reputation as an entertainer, his remarks always being fluent and proper, and in this instance there was no exception.

Among those who were called upon and responded at this function were Adjutant-General J. C. R Foster of Tallahassee, a visitor to the Elks, who is also an enthusiastic member of the order; Hon W S. Ware of Jacksonville, deputy grand high priest of the R. A M of Florida, who was here on an official visit to the local chapter R. A. M.; Col. I. E Webster, F S. T., retired, who is a prominent member of the R. A M; Senator H. H. McCreary, a good Elk who has the interests of the order at heart; Robt. McClellan, "a good Mason and a good Elk, too," and several others.

In all, the meeting was a perfect success, notwithstanding that the oyster supper came as a surprise It was evidence that even on the verge of the moment an Elk or a Mason is equal to what is presented to him, and will handle the question with due diligence and propriety.

The local lodge of Elks are under obligations to Mr. Warren for his treat, and also under obligations to the speakers for their eloquence and sound judgment.

Forest Grove Items.

Forest Grove, February 22.—Mrs. D. A. Moody has been very sick, but is some better now. We hope she will soon be able to get up again. L. W. Knight is also in bed sick.

People of our neighborhood are busy preparing for another crop. We are all smiles to see another rain, for we need it bad.

The writer was out in the West End some time ago and saw lots of tiger tracks. Could have shot one, but was afraid of killing some coons. There are lots of fox dogs around here, but they won't run tigers. We wish Sheriff L. W. F. would attend to the tigers.

Route No 1 Will Go Into Effect April 16—Will Be Welcomed.

Newberry, Feb. 21.—R. F. D. route No 1 will go into operation on April 16th. Postmaster Reid has been at work for sometime in an effort to get the route established, with the above result.

Beginning at Newberry postoffice it will run in an easterly direction to Cummer's side camp, south to H. A. Pickett's, east to M. M Sanchez,' north to J. I. Griffin's (Jonesville postoffice), south and east to Cummer's log camp, northeast for two miles, northwest for two miles, south to J. J. Jones,' west to Griffin's peach orchard (Komoko), thence back to Newberry.

The distance traveled will be 26 3 miles; number of houses, 103; population served, 430

Applications for carriers must be in the hands of the department by February 27. The examination will take place at Gainesville on March 9th.

Quite a number of the patrons of the new route have already secured boxes, and an effort is being made to have all boxes alike on the route. After April 15th no mail will be delivered to the regular carrier between Newberry and Tioga. This route will be of vast help to the citizens of this section and all are heartily in favor of it.

LIKES HAMPTON SPRINGS.

L. A. Jernigan is Eating Venison and Fine Wild Turkey Twice-a-Day.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Jernigan left a few days ago for Hampton Springs, where they went in an endeavor to relieve the latter, who has been generally "run down" with rheumatism for some time.

Mr Jernigan writes to a friend in this city that he is well pleased with the resort, and with that keen appetite for which he should be envied, concludes his letter by saying: "You just ought to be here. I am eating venison steak for breakfast and fine wild turkey for dinner every day. It's enough to make a man forget his ailments and his troubles (if he has any), and I propose to stay here just as long as I can."

Mr Jernigan did not say anything about the benefit he was receiving from the waters of the spring, but so long as he able to write about the good things he has to eat and the way in which he enjoys them, it is to be taken for granted that Hampton Springs is accomplishing a great deal of good for him.

COMPANIES GIVE SAME RAISE.

Increase by the Postal and Western Union.

Atlanta, Feb. 22.—Official confirmation has been received in this city that both the Postal and Western Union Telegraph companies would increase the salaries of their employes 10 per cent. It was at first rumored that the Postal would increase the salaries of their operators and managers 15 per cent, but a message from New York states this was unauthorized.

Regarding the 10 per cent raise recently anounced by the Western Union Telegraph company, Superintendent G. W. Lloyd received the following letter:

"You are authorized to include managers and operators at all independent offices in the increase of 10 per cent in salaries from March 1, 1907. Please distribute this order to all independent offices without delay. (Signed) J. Levin, general superintendent."

A Card of Thanks.

We desire to express our sincere thanks to Mrs. G. W. Broughton, in charge of the Sanitarium, Dr. J. H. Hodges and the many friends in Gainesville who so tenderly cared for our son and nephew, Byron Harris, during his sickness—death—at the Odd Fellows' Home.

May God ever bless to those who stand ever ready to minister to those who suffer afflictions and trouble.

With deepest gratitude we are, sincerly,

Important Correction.

To Tennyson truth was a simple thing. It was simply to be exact. In this light should be read an amusing story found in Bram Stoker's "Personal Reminiscences of Henry Irving." Irving had heard a story that Tennyson not long before had been lunching with friends in his own neighborhood not far from Haslemere. His hostess said to him as they went into the dining room:

"I have made a dish specially for you myself. I hope you will try it and tell me exactly what you think of it."

"Of course I shall," replied Tennyson.

After lunch she asked him what he thought of it.

"If you really wish to know," said he, "I thought it was like an old shoe."

When they met, Irving asked Tennyson if the story were true.

"No," he said at once. "I didn't say that. I said something, but it wasn't that it was like an old shoe."

"What did you say?" persisted Irving.

"I said it was like an old boot."

When You Take Cold

One way is to pay no attention to it; at least, not until it develops into pneumonia, or bronchitis, or pleurisy. Another way is to ask your doctor about Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. If he says, "The best thing for colds," then take it. Do as he says, anyway.

FRUIT GROWERS GATHER.

Five States Were Represented at the Convention.

Atlanta, Feb. 22.—Probably the largest convention of horticulturists ever held in the south took place on Thursday morning at the Kimball house, when fruit growers from five southern state, Georgia, Florida, Alabama South Carolina and Tennessee, met at 10 o'clock.

There was present in convention between 400 and 500 delegates. The sessions will last for two days, at which time the following lists of subjects will be taken up for discussion;

As to how far and what way we should unite and operate in the distribution of our fruit to avoid crowded markets and to reach all paying markets.

How we may best and quickest present our claim to the interstate commerce commission for redress against excessive transportation charges.

How we may secure better facilities for handling and inspection enroute and at destination.

How we may secure prompt settlement from railroads and commission merchants for losses and damages, and shortage in returns.

How we may secure the best crates at reasonable prices.

How the canning industry can be best developed and made useful in handing our crops.

The meeting was one of the utmost importance for the horticultural interests of the south, and not only are the methods of fruit growing to be discussed, but measures will be passed to fight against inadequate transportation and oppressive freight rates.

Men Past Sixty in Danger.

More than half mankind over sixty years of age suffer from kidney and bladder disorders, usually enlargement of prostate gland. This is both painful and dangerous, and Foley's Kidney Cure should be taken at the first sign of danger, as it corrects irregularities and has cured many old men of this disease. Mr. Rodney Burnett, Rock Port, Mo., writes: "I suffered with enlarged prostate gland and kidney trouble for years and after taking two bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure I feel better than I have for twenty years, although I am now 91 years old." DIED AT AGE OF 114 YEARS.

Trapper Messer, Aged North Carolina Man, Succumbs to Death.

Charlotte, N. C., Feb. 22.—Frederick Messer, the south's oldest citizen, famous as a hunter and trapper before civilization blazed a way across the Blue Ridge mountains, is dead at his home, in Haywood county, at the age of 114 years, 6 months and 5 days.

Messer was born Aug. 12, 1792, in Lincoln county, and in early life, when western Carolina was an unexplored wilderness, peopled by the Cherokees, he located in the mountains 21 miles from what is now Waynesville, the county seat of Haywood county, there pursuing his wild vocation of hunting and trapping. He was hale and vigorous up to within a few months of his death, frequently walking to Waynesville to attend the county court, and once every year, on his birthday, swimming the Pigeon river, which runs by his mountain home. He married a woman of Milmington, this state, who bore him nine children, and lived to the age of 84. But one child, now a woman, 90 years old, survives him. His age is established by authentic records.

He used tobacco and the corn whisky of the mountains, in moderation, all his life, and attributed his great longevity to his regular sleeping and waking hours, most of which were spent out of doors.

Even From the Mountains

Ballard's Snow Liniment is praised for the good it does. A sure cure for rheumatism and all pains. Wright W. Loving, Grand Junction, Colo., writes: "I used Ballard's Snow Liniment last winter for rheumatism, and can recommend it as the best liniment on the market. I thought at the time I was taken down with this trouble that it would be a week before I could get about, but on applying your liniment several times during the night, I was about in 48 hours and well in three days." DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everybody who reads the newspapers is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, uric acid, catarrh of the bladder and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work and in private practice, and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper, who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root, and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles are sold by all good druggists. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

NEGRO MURDERER CAPTURED.

For Crime Committed Eight Years Ago at Statesboro, Ga.

Statesboro, Ga., Feb. 21.—It is not yet known if Sam Jackson, the negro arrested at Boston, Ga., a few days ago and who was brought here and lodged in jail by Sheriff Kendrick, is the right man, and it will be a day or two yet before this can be ascertained. The negro Sam Jackson, who, with Andrew Scott, killed one man outright and mortally wounded another who later died, is well known by a number of people in this county, and those in the neighborhood in which the tragedy occurred eight years ago and they have been sent for and will come to the jail to see if the negro under arrest is the one wanted.

It has been eight years since Andrew Kennedy, one of the most prominent citizens of the county, was killed, and Deputy Sheriff Frank Donaldson fatally wounded by Andrew Scott and Sam Jackson while trying to place the negroes under arrest. At the time a thorough search was made for the murderers, and a large reward offered, but they were never captured.

WHAT YE HEAR.

"Take heed what ye hear" as to slanderous reports and insinuations. There is a vast amount of defamation in the world. Perhaps we have all suffered more or less by it, hence one would think we might be prepared to estimate it at its real value. But notwithstanding our own experience in regard to its evils, how prone we are to listen to what evil tongues may say of our neighbors! Though jealous enough for our own reputation we seem to have little concern for that of others. We should remember that we have no more right to hear what evil tongues may say, than evil tongues have to say what they ought not. We could not give the tongue of slander a more pointed and successful rebuke than to refuse to listen to it. If we are watchful of our ears, others would be constrained to bridle their tongues.

If all men were deaf and blind there would be no slander, because there would be none to hear or read it, and the unruly member would of necessity be kept in order. But now there are hearers and readers, and hence the tongue and pen must be guarded. Idle words are often the cause of inestimable mischief. A good name is rather to be chosen than riches. But the tongue of slander may rob us of our good name and leave us poor indeed. What havoc has been made of the peace and happiness of individuals, of families, of neighborhoods by an evil tongue! What were but trifles are swelling into importance by repetition, and thus difficulties which a single word might have explained and healed, increase in magnitude and at last become incurable. The tongue will be evil while the heart is wrong, for out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh. The best remedy for an evil tongue is a new heart, but as even the best of us are sanctified in part, we must adopt such a remedy as will meet the evil from whatever source it may come, and this is the remedy: Take heed what ye hear. We must refuse to listen to what the evil tongue says. Listening to slander is so nearly related to slander itself that, if we give place to the one, we are likely to be infected with the other. The listener is partaker with the speaker; therefore, at all times, now and ever, take heed what ye hear—don't hear everything, and don't repeat everything you hear.

Governor Hughes of New York is determined to see to it that a competent man is at the head of the Insurance Department of the State to enforce the insurance law for which he, the Governor, is directly responsible. If all Republicans were of the stamp of Governor Hughes it would be better for the people at large. He is keeping his ante election promises to the letter, and is proving himself every inch a governor.

"Wolves in Relation to Stock Reserves" is the title of a pamphlet issued by the Agricultural Department. We do not find anything in it, however, concerning the way to deal with wolves in the stock market. Probably the department regards this as a branch of the subject not within its province.

OLNEY ON JAPAN ISSUE.

The Japanese contention that they have the right under the treaty between us to the free use of the white public schools of San Francisco for Japanese children, and indeed for older people, is held to be untenable by ex-Secretary of State Olney. The treaty itself, Mr. Olney thinks, excludes such an issue, for it contains an explicit reservation which gives all our States such rights as California has exercised in the organization of its San Francisco public schools. Said treaty gives the Japanese who come here the same privileges, rights and liberties as citizens of the United States, but there is an exception that undoubtedly covers the question of the right of States to create separate schools for scholars of different color or nationality.

That exception is contained in the last paragraph of article 2 of said treaty, as follows:

"It is, however, understood that the stipulations contained in this and the preceding article do not in any way affect the laws, ordinances and regulations in regard to trade, the immigration of laborers, police and public security, either in force or which may hereafter be enacted in either of the two countries."

Mr. Olney says: "I am unable to see how the meaning and effect of the paragraph just quoted can be misunderstood. It embodies an expressed declaration that the stipulations of article 1 are in no way to affect the laws, ordinances and regulations with regard to police and public security which are in force, or which may hereafter be enacted in either of the two countries. In other words, the congeries of important powers, known as the police power, is untouched and unimpaired by this treaty.

"What California has chosen to do with reference to the San Francisco public schools raises no question under the treaty with Japan, and is a subject matter with which the national government has no right to concern itself. In short, the entire police power of the country, being reserved by the treaty in favor of either the United States or the several States, and the establishment, maintenance and organization of the public schools of each State, coming under the police power of that State exclusively, Japan is wholly without cause of complaint against California by reason of its public school system, and the United States is without legal ground of interference with that system, vi et armis, or otherwise."

If the Japanese are determined to come to the United States, especially the Pacific States, they will have to put up with the local laws they find there, just the same as citizens of the United States residing in Japan have to be satisfied with the laws and customs that Japan has established.

The whole trouble arises from the fact that the Japanese consider themselves superior to the Chinese, and their dignity is hurt by their children in San Francisco being obliged to attend the separate schools established for children of Mongolian parents.

Nearly all the watch signs, probably ninety out of 100, have hands set at 8:18, but comparatively few people know why this is. It is no accident. W. K. Washburn of New York was painting a sign for a jeweler of that city when the news of the assassination of Abraham Lincoln, April 14, 1865, was received in New York, and the latter ordered the painter to put upon the dial the exact time when the fatal shot was fired, namely 8:18, and so they have continued ever since. Whenever you see a sign after this, recall the fact that it points to the fatal moment.

Catarrh Cannot be Cured

INDUSTRY VS. INDOLENCE.

The number of people now days trying to get riches without labor, something for nothing, fortunes in a day, are legion, and they are a mighty temptation to the industrious young man who cannot understand it. They behold the seeming ease and leisure that comes to them while they have it so hard. Horatious of olden time was told he could have just as much ground as he could plow around with a yoke of oxen in one day. He hooked up the oxen to the plow and he cut a very large circle, and plowed until he came to the same point where he started, and all that property was his. And just so much financial, just so much moral, just so much spiritual possession you will have as you compass with your own industries, and just so much as from the morning of your life to the evening of your life you can plow around with your own hard work. "Go to the ant, thou sluggard; consider her ways and be wise." One of the most awful caldrons of death today is an indolent life. Thank God that you have to work.

A Thirsty Cat.

"Perhaps you think the old water in the milk joke has been worked to death, but I've found a new variation of it," said a south side man recently. "You know, I have a small negro girl as a nurse for my children, and one of her duties is to tell stories to the kids just before bedtime. They always listen intently to what she says, and last night I decided to listen too. This is what I heard:

"'An' de cat, she got thirsty, an' got thirstier an' mo' thirsty, an' finally she went to a pan ob milk sittin' in de pantry to get a drink ob watah.'

"I told the story to our milkman this morning, and he didn't laugh at all."—Kansas City Times.

A CRUEL ENDING

The Lonely Death and Desecrated Grave of Laurence Sterne.

Laurence Sterne, the great writer, was left alone in his rooms on Bond street, London, in those last bitter days, with a servant of the lodging house for his only attendant. As he lay dying a knock was heard at the door and a footman entered, come from a house near by to inquire as to his health.

The footman waited till the end, saw the thin arm raised as if to ward off a blow and heard the almost inarticulate murmur from white lips, "Now it is come!"

Then he went back to the house, where a large party was gathered, and told the news to the feasters, most of whom were Sterne's friends. For the space of half an hour they lamented him, and then the talk turned on other things—so soon are we forgotten in this workaday world.

"Alas, poor Yorick!" His publisher and a single friend followed him to the tomb, while ghouls watched outside and marked the spot where he was laid. Two nights afterward the body was stolen, shipped to Cambridge and placed, strangely enough, upon the dissecting table at his own university. A friend recognized his features and fainted away when it was too late to stop the desecration.—Myrtle Reed in Book News Monthly.

CROUCH KILLED BY NEIGHBOR.

Quarrel Over Land Trade Results in Tragedy.

Concord, Ga., Feb. 22.—Harvey Crouch, a well-known young farmer of Silvey, in Meriwether county, was shot and killed by George Brown, a neighbor.

It is reported that the two had had some kind of dispute over a land trade and Crouch went to the home of Brown, where they engaged in a heated quarrel, during which Crouch took violent exception, stating that he would kill Brown if he did not retract what he had said, reaching for his pistol as he spoke. At this juncture Brown drew his own pistol, an automatic weapon, and shot Crouch three times, killing him instantly.

The only eyewitness to the tragedy, Dave Thrash, states that the killing was in self-defense and that Brown was justified in his act.

Both parties to the affair belong to prominent families and numbered their friends in this section by the score. Both were farmers.

Pistol Duel in East Macon.

Macon, Ga., Feb. 22.—L. S. McConnell, an East Macon merchant, shot and fatally injured John King, a farmer, in front of the former's store, as the result of boisterous conduct on the part of King, which McConnell resented. McConnell is in jail, having been taken into custody by Sheriff Robertson. He claims to have shot in self-defense. King drew a revolver and renewed a difficulty which had arisen over his abusing a negro woman in front of the store. When McConnell saw the situation he reached for his own revolver and each man fired two shots. Only one took effect. This passed through King's body, perforating the bowels. He is at the city hospital in a dying condition. Both men have families.

Neighbors Got Fooled.

"I was literally coughing myself to death, and had become too weak to leave my bed, and neighbors predicted that I would never leave it alone; but they got fooled, for thanks be to God, I was induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery. It took just four one-dollar bottles to completely cure the cough and restore me to good sound health," writes Mrs. Eva Uncapher of Grovertown, Stark Co., Ind. This King of cough and cold cures, and healer of throat and lungs, is guaranteed at all druggists'. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

"The Conduct of Life."

Under this head Ralph Waldo Emerson wrote: "'Tis an estimable blot I owe to a few persons of fine manners that they make behavior the very first sign of force behavior, not performance or talent, or, much less, wealth. While almost anybody has a supplicating eye turned on events and things and other persons, a few natures are central and forever unfold, and these alone charm us. He whose word or deed you cannot predict, who answers you without any supplication in his eye, who draws his determination from within, that man rules."

DOCTORS MISTAKES

Are said often to be buried six feet under ground. But many times women call on their family physicians, suffering, as they imagine, one from dyspepsia, another from heart disease, another from liver or kidney disease, another from nervous prostration, another with pain here and there, and in this way they present alike to themselves and their easy-going or overbusy doctor, separate diseases, for which he, assuming them to be such, prescribes his pills and potions. In reality, they are all only symptoms caused by some uterine disease. The physician, ignorant of the cause of suffering, keeps up his treatment until large bills are made. The suffering patient gets no better or worse, or the wrong treatment, but probably worse. A proper medicine like Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, directed to the cause would have entirely removed the disease, thereby dispelling all those distressing symptoms, and instituting comfort instead of prolonged misery. It has been well said, that "a disease known is half cured."

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a scientific medicine, carefully devised by an experienced and skillful physician, and adapted to woman's delicate system. It is made of native American medicinal roots and is perfectly harmless in its effects in any condition of the female system.

As a powerful invigorating tonic "Favorite Prescription" imparts strength to the whole system and to the organs distinctly feminine in particular. For overworked, "worn-out," run-down," debilitated teachers, milliners, dressmakers, seamstresses, "shop-girls," house-keepers, nursing mothers, and feeble women generally, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the greatest earthly boon, being unequaled as an appetizing cordial and restorative tonic.

As a soothing and strengthening nervine "Favorite Prescription" is unequaled and is invaluable in allaying and subduing nervous excitability, irritability, nervous exhaustion, nervous prostration, neuralgia, hysteria, spasms, St. Vitus's dance, and other distressing, nervous symptoms commonly attendant upon functional and organic disease of the uterus. It induces refreshing sleep and relieves mental anxiety and despondency.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets invigorate the stomach, liver and bowels. One to three a dose. Easy to take as candy.

Tried to Commit Suicide.

Macon, Ga., Feb. 22.—Mrs. Ella Shivers lies dangerously wounded at a house on Third street here, the result of a decision on her part to end her life. Without stating her troubles, she secured a revolver, aimed it at her heart and fired. The ball ranged above the vital organ and came out in the left shoulder. Medical assistance came and she has improved, but may die. She is 22 years of age, has been married and divorced and evidently sought death in preference to the remorse her life has heaped upon her during the past few years. South Macon is the home of her childhood.

A Stitch in Time

Will save nine. So will a bottle of Ballard's Horehound Syrup always kept on hand save many a spell of sickness. A sure cure for coughs, colds, bronchitis and whooping coughs. Mrs. S——, Hot Springs, Ark., writes: "I keep a bottle of Ballard's Horehound Syrup in my medicine chest, and thank my forethought many times. It has prevented many severe spells of sickness." Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Knew Him at Once.

There are other sure ways of bringing a man to mind besides mentioning his name. Among the candidates who were sent from Princeton to a Philadelphia church was one young man whose language was of the sort which dazzles and delights the younger members of a congregation and sometimes pleases the elders as well. In this case the committee were besieged to ask for the young man again, and they consented, but unfortunately the man to whose lot it fell to write the letter had forgotten the candidate's name. Nothing daunted, he wrote to one of the seminary professors:

"Please send us that floweret, streamlet, rivulet, cloudlet, starlight and moonbeam young man again. We've forgotten his name, but we've no doubt you'll recognize him."

"We do," wrote the professor. And the desired candidate was sent and subsequently was called to the parish.

To Extract Essence From Flowers.

Procure a quantity of the petals of any flowers that smell sweet and fragrant. Take thin pieces of muslin or cotton cloth and after having dipped them in good Lucca oil or Florence oil place them as layers between the petals. Sprinkle a small quantity of fine salt on the flowers and put a layer of linen and a layer of flowers alternately until an earthen vessel or wide mouthed glass bottle is full. Tie the top over with oil silk or parchment, then lay the vessel in a south aspect in the heat of the sun, and in fifteen days, when uncovered, a fragrant oil may be squeezed away from the whole mass.

A Card.

This is to certify that all druggists are authorized to refund your money if Foley's Honey and Tar fails to cure your cough or cold. It stops the cough, heals the lungs and prevents serious results from a cold. Cures la grippe cough and prevents pneumonia and consumption. Contains no opiates. The genuine is in a yellow package. Refuse substitutes. J. W. McCollum & Co.

THE ESPOUSAL.

Ancient Ceremony of the Mutual Promise of Marriage.

The first part of the matrimonial office was anciently termed the espousal, which took place some time prior to the actual celebration of marriage. These espousals consisted in a mutual promise of marriage, which was made by the man and woman before the bishop or presbyter and several witnesses.

After them the articles of agreement of marriage, called tabuloe matrimoniales, which are mentioned by Augustine, were signed by both persons. After this the man delivered to the woman the ring and other gifts, an action which was termed subarrhation. In the latter ages the espousals have always been performed at the same time as the office of matrimony in all the churches abroad, and it has long been customary for the ring to be delivered to the woman after the contract has been made, which has always been in the actual office of matrimony.

The ring is a special token of spousage. In some of the old manuals for the use of foreign cathedrals before the minister proceeds to the marriage he is directed to ask the woman's dowry—viz, the tokens of spousage—and by these tokens of spousage are to be understood rings or money or some other things to be given to the woman by the man, which giving is called wedding or covenanting, especially when it is done by the giving of a ring.—New York Tribune.

The Word "Idiot."

"Idiot" is a word with a curious history. In Greek "idiotes" began by meaning a private individual, as apposed to the state or to a state official; then it meant a nonexpert or layman and finally an ignorant man or an awkward fellow. It was left for English to carry the meaning further to mental deficiency. In "Piers Plowman" an "idiot" is an ignorant person, and as late as 1688 it could mean a person who knew only one language. Wyclif and Jeremy Taylor used it in the sense of "layman," and the latter also in that of "private person." And a professional "fool" or jester was at one time an "idiot" too.

UNPROFITABLE FEEDING

Intelligent stock raisers know that a certain amount of feed is necessary to keep an animal alive. They might feed that amount as long as it lives, and it would never gain a pound.

There is no profit in that kind of feeding. The kind that pays is the kind that builds flesh rapidly. If it takes twenty pounds of food each day to keep a sheep alive, twenty-five pounds a day will make it gain flesh. It's the extra five that brings the profit. The first five pounds amounts to nothing, nor does the second or third or fourth five pounds.

It's the same way with advertising. You have to do a certain amount to overcome the resistance of the public.

You have to do a certain amount of advertising to make them wake up to the fact that you are in business at all. You have to pay a certain amount to keep your advertising alive. What you pay above that amount brings profit.

Some advertisers fail because they do not use enough space. They use barely enough or sometimes not quite enough to make the advertising self sustaining. A little bit more would make it profitable. It is better to advertise a little too much than not quite enough.—Charles Austin Bates.

Some of our advertisers could enlarge their space with profit.
